OUR PARTY LINE IS WHAT WE'VE MADE IT

There's a trick to calling a long list of people without monopolizing a party line. This is the way that works out best on our line . . . and we have a lot of telephoning to do for our various clubs and organizations.

- We don't try to call the whole list at one sitting.
- A few calls, then a few minutes wait to give someone else a chance to call in or out.
- We keep our conversations short.
- We avoid starting in on a list during the early part of the evening when our line is usually busiest.
