

The fastest time ever made by an outboard, was made by a Boyd-Martin "Bullet," driven by Eldon Travis, at 41.748 miles per hour in official time trials.—Peoria, Illinois.

The fastest time ever made in competition was made by a Boyd-Martin "Bullet," driven by Eldon Travis, at 39.93 miles per hour. Established in competition at Muscatine, Iowa, on October 14, 1928.

Second fastest time ever made in competition. A Boyd-Martin "Bullet," driven by Bill Higgins goes 37.3 M. P. H. at Danville, Ill., on September 16, 1928.

New World's Marathon Record established by a Boyd-Martin "Falcon," driven by Fred Smith. Average of 33.2 M. P. H. for a distance of 202 miles—from Augusta to Savannah, Ga., August 15, 1928.

Harrison Fraser, famous Florida driver, undoubtedly has to his credit more outboard victories than any driver in the world. He assisted in designing, drives, and enthusiastically endorses the "Bullet."

SPECIFICATIONS Bullet, Senior

Length, 12' 6"; Step at center, 2 1/4"; Depth amidship, 16"; Beam, 48"; Height Transom, 17"; has new convex bottom, advanced transom, adjustable for C, D and E motors. Ribs, gunwales, battens and transom are mahogany; keel, chine, are rock elm. 1/4" sides, 5/16" bottom, 1/2" frame copper riveted; all fastenings of brass and copper; planking copper nailed and screwed to frame; Spanish leather deck; three aluminum lifting handles, polished brass tubular stern braces, six aluminum air tubes, cast aluminum fin, leather kapok cushion, 24" by 24"; one 5' paddle. Remote control steering wheel with tiller rope, two polished brass fast eye blocks, mahogany stabilizers with aluminum brackets. Power recommended, C, D and E motors. Speed—capable of 30 to 50 M. P. H.

The "Bullet" Sr. is designed to meet an anticipated demand for a racing boat a little larger than our standard Bullet Jr. for use with larger, heavier, powerful motors announced for 1929.

Weight 135 lbs. Approx. Weight Crated 275 lbs.
No. 200—Genuine African Mahogany.....$235.00

SPECIFICATIONS Bullet, Junior

Length, 11'; Step at Center, 1 1/2"; Depth amidship, 14"; Beam, 44"; Height Transom, 17"; has new convex bottom, advanced transom adjustable for B, C and D motors. Construction, features and equipment same as BULLET, Senior. Power recommended, B, C and D motors. Speed—capable of 30 to 42 M. P. H.

Weight 100 lbs. Approx. weight, crated, 225 lbs.

No. 100—Genuine African Mahogany	$225.00
No. 105—Spruce Frame, Cedar Planking	$185.00

See General Catalog
for Family Boats

THE BULLET

