Wabash & Erie Canal Conference & Interpretive Center Opening Soon!
The outside of the facility will resemble downtown Delphi buildings of the 1850s. Interior features will include a meeting room to accommodate 275 guests and state-of-the-art exhibits highlighting the canal era, 1832 to 1876. The new facility is designed to be a regional attraction for tourists, school children, canal buffs, and organizations.

Cover Photo:
The Civil War monument on the southeast corner of the courthouse square was unveiled to the public in 1893. A closer look will reveal the names of battlefields, like Shiloh, where Carroll County soldiers fought, and some died for the Union.

DISCOVER THE PAST

Delphi Indiana was named & platted in 1828 by General Samuel Milroy on 100 acres donated by William Wilson for the seat of Carroll County. The county took its name from Charles Carroll, the last surviving signer of the Declaration of Independence. The first means of transportation for Delphi was provided by the Wabash & Erie Canal in 1840. Delphi has the longest remaining section of the Wabash & Erie Canal containing water (approximately 1 mile).

Please take time to enjoy the specialty shops and cafes, many nestled in 19th century buildings. You may enjoy a walk on our extensive trail system, a picnic in one of our parks or a look at the rich historical architecture Delphi has to offer. Whatever your interest we hope you enjoy your visit and come again soon.
