"OUR NEW LIBERTY BELL"

The Liberty Bell is calling,

From the school house on the hill,
Its mellow notes re-echo

From the mountains, cold and still.
Through the village streets they travel

As a summons to the free;
For the school house is the cradle
Of our Country's Liberty.

Not on battle field where cannon
Pours their shells upon the foe,
Can you train the soul of freedom
In the things it ought to know,
That Old Bell in Philadelphia,
Rang its notes, and then was still
But its voice today is speaking

From the school house on the hill.
R. M. McElroy.
